

A second home for the first six years.

A warm, nature-led daycare in Umalas built around gentle routines, curious minds, and a sense of home — inspired by Reggio Emilia and the Balinese belief that a child grows best in harmony.

1:3

INFANTS

One educator per three — our lowest ratio, where children need us most.

1:5

TODDLERS

One educator per five, as independence begins to grow.

1:8

PRESCHOOL

Collaborative project work inside a strong peer community.

7-7

KIDS' CLUB

Flexible, play-based care, Monday to Sunday.

Nurture · Embrace · Inspire

Inspired by the Balinese belief that a child grows best in harmony — with family, community, and nature — paired with a Reggio Emilia-inspired approach where the environment itself is a child's "third teacher."

EXPLORE OUR APPROACH →

Nature

The environment as a third teacher.

Family

Partnership at every stage of growth.

Community

A village of educators and caregivers.

"A village of support where every child feels seen, heard, valued, and empowered to spread their wings."

A day at The Nest

Gentle routines a child can predict, and inside them, room to follow whatever catches their attention that morning.

Sensory play

Story time

Outdoor discovery

Mealtime together

Rest & reflection

Learning designed for every stage of childhood

From first connections to school readiness, each stage supports growth through nurturing relationships and purposeful environments — one continuous journey, not four separate rooms.

1-2y

FAMILY PARTNERSHIP & NEXT STEPS →

A place you can trust, a place they'll love

Low ratios, always

From 1:3 in infancy to 1:8 in preschool — every child is genuinely known.

People, not just policy

We hire for character first: nurturers, guides, co-learners.

A secure campus

Access control, CCTV, and screened staff — set out in full on our Safety page.

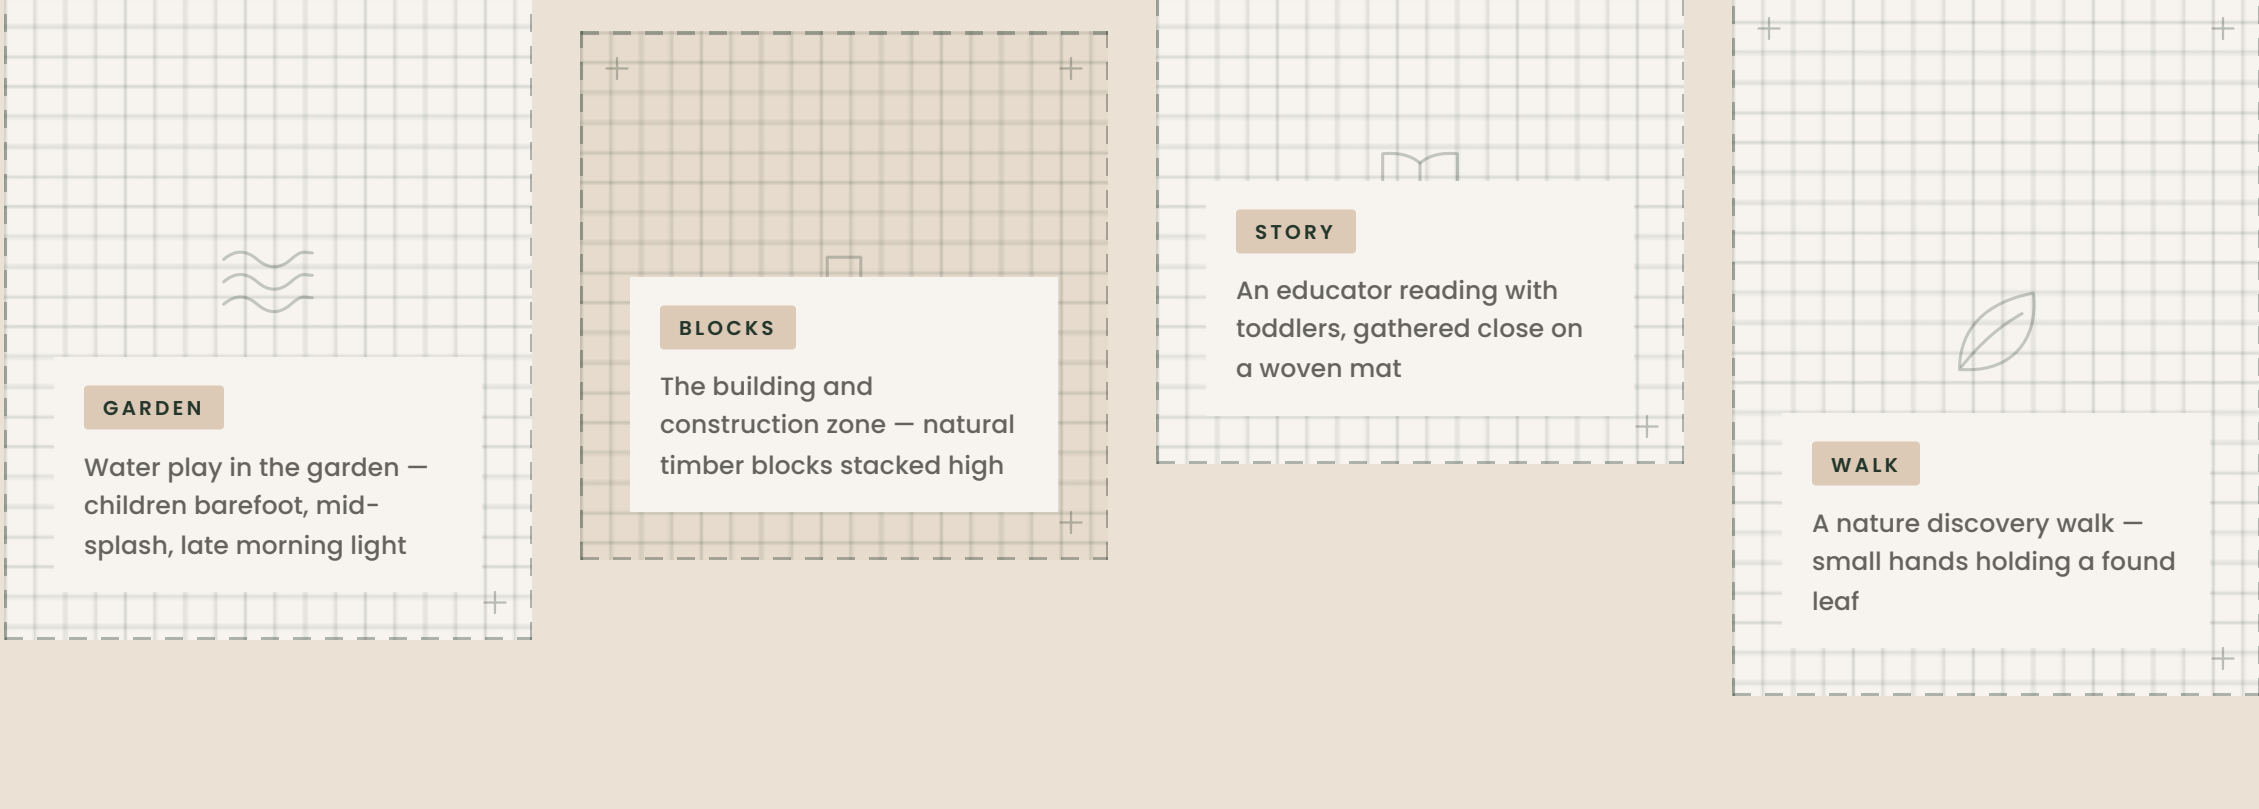

Real relationships

Small groups mean every child is truly known, every day.

Moments from The Nest

Ordinary days, which is rather the point.

Loved by our Nest families

Real words from real families will sit here.

Come and see The Nest for yourself.

We would love to meet your family and show you around our Umalas campus — the rooms, the garden, and the educators your child would be with.
